all children regardless of race,

religion, and gender. The fee includes coaching, a basketball, T-shirt, and camp photo for each child.

Faith and Basketball

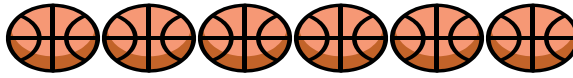

Camp Founder Bernie Loposer shares his thoughts about kids and dribbling

Bernie Loposer, a parish member and the camp's originator and visionary, said that, although we will teach basketball skills such as dribbling and shooting baskets, we also want to teach children the social skills such as sportsmanship and teamwork.

"That's why our basketball camp is so special. It's not like other camps. We do teach kids how to handle a basketball, and we teach them the fundamentals of the game. But we think that a very important part of learning to play a sport is learning values. So we focus on the values of good sportsmanship, teamwork, and the principles of healthy competition. We have contests, but we do not keep score, because we don't want them to play to win. We want them to play, learn, have fun, and learn how to play as a team. That is really gratifying to us."

Our Coach

Coach (Mark) Rickard has devoted his career to teaching and coaching kids through sport. As a PE teacher, Head Varsity Women's Basketball Coach, Varsity and Middle School Softball Coach at St. George's School; he has made a reputation for himself as a dedicated, hardworking, successful champion of student athletes. On the basketball court Mark was a standout at Republic High School, his senior year he was the all time leader in total points, rebounds in a career, and free-throw percentage for Republic.

In Coach Rickard's own words, "Ultimately coaching and working with kids is my passion. Beside my wonderful wife and 3 beautiful children, nothing brings me more joy than to see the excitement and enthusiasm of student athletes on the court or on the field. Through that excitement and enthusiasm for the game, I hope to cultivate a positive competitive spirit in kids and not only develop better athletes, but also better people in the process."
